

Hosting Services Rebate Form

Are you thinking about switching web hosting companies? We've got a special offer for you! You can get a credit for the time left on your current hosting account with any company up to $50 by moving your hosting to URLJet!

In order to qualify for the hosting services rebate, you need to provide the documentation requested below. Failure to provide full documentation will result in a denial of the rebate. Submission of this form indicates your acceptance of our terms of service regarding rebates.

Send your documentation to sales@urljet.com or you can fax it to 888-699-2609.

Please provide the following:

1. Your original welcome email from your former hosting service, or welcome email and first invoice.

-We need to see clearly the domain and services you applied for as well as the pricing agreement.

-We need exact copies of the original emails from your former host in digital or physical format.

Conditions:

1. If you received a refund from your former host per their terms of service, no rebate can be provided by us.

2. Your account must remain open with us for at least 60 days before we can provide a rebate.

3. The rebate will be issued as a credit to your account to be applied to your next invoice. Or you may take a cash value rebate of $30 payable via PayPal after 90-days.

4. We reserve the right to reject any rebate if full information is not provided as requested.
